Progress Screenshot:

The screenshot shows the Coursera interface for the course 'Programming for Everybody (Getting Started with Python)' by the University of Michigan. The user is logged in as 'Ishak Rajat Upadhyay'. The course progress bar indicates completion of Week 3 and the start of Week 4. The current section is '2.1 - Expressions' with a 'Start' button. The left sidebar lists the course structure: Overview, Week 1-7, Grades, Notes, Discussion Forums, Messages, Resources, and Course Info. The main content area shows the 'Chapter Two: Variables and Expressions' section with a progress bar and a table of required items.
